

Personalysis Overview

WHAT IS PERSONALYSIS?

Personalysis is a proprietary personality assessment tool that provides insight into how we think, feel, and deal with the world around us. A simple, 15-minute online questionnaire results in the Personalysis Report, a written personality interpretation, and the Personalysis ColorGraph, an easy-to-use graphical personality roadmap. The data – depicted as colors, shapes, and numbers – enables people to understand differences and engineer high functioning working relationships with others.

WHAT IS “IN IT” FOR YOU?

Aided by the objective data Personalysis provides, you will get information to help clarify how to leverage your strengths and manage your blind sides. It will confirm many things you know about yourself, as well as new insights about yourself and others. Aided by this new frame of reference, you will be better able to leverage your own nature to maximize your personal and interpersonal effectiveness.
